

You must delay the decision on deregulation until this issue has received adequate public attention and citizen input. The airways are the property of the citizens of the US not mega media corp. Stop this rush to judgment!